NOAA Seeks Public Comment on the 2010 Caribbean Annual Catch Limit Amendment (Revised) Comment Period Ends Friday, November 25, 2011

NOAA Fisheries Service seeks public comment on an amendment developed by the Caribbean Fishery Management Council. This amendment to the Fishery Management Plans for reef fish and queen conch resources in the U.S. Caribbean is designed to bring those fisheries into compliance with the 2007 revisions to the Magnuson-Stevens Fishery Conservation and Management Act. Actions in this amendment will:

- Amend the composition of the fishery management units for snapper and grouper.
- For species designated as undergoing overfishing (rate of removal is too high), and for the fishery management units within which those species reside, establish annual catch limits (amount of fish that can be taken without triggering accountability measures) and accountability measures (measures to prevent or address an overage of an annual catch limit) to end and prevent further overfishing in both the commercial and recreational sectors.
- Prohibit harvest of three species of parrotfish (midnight, blue, rainbow).
- Establish recreational fishing bag limits.
- Establish exclusive economic zone sub-boundaries for purposes of applying accountability measures.
- Adjust management measures as needed to constrain harvest to specified annual catch limits.
